

Meet Your Neighbors!

And join

SPEAKING ACROSS DIFFERENCES

on

March 7, 2007

The School for International Studies
284 Baltic Street (between Court and Smith)

6:30 PM

featuring PLAYBACK THEATRE
(your neighborhood stories performed by citizen actors)

Middle Eastern Buffet

Free Childcare

A community Dialogue program that provides

- An opportunity for Brooklyn natives and newcomers to talk about our lives and neighborhoods
- A chance to learn about your neighbors' culture and faith traditions
- A forum for talking about issues that affect our daily lives in Brownstone Brooklyn (Boerum Hill, Brooklyn Heights, Cobble Hill, Carroll Gardens).
- Find information on ESL Classes, Immigration, Parent/Child Educational Services, and more.

For more information please call:

Marcia	The Dialogue Project	(718) 768-2175
Leroy	Community Board 6	(718) 643-3027 x204
Lena/Wisal	Arab American Association	(718) 643-8000

Community partners for this program include:

Arab American Family Support Center, Brooklyn Heights Synagogue, Community Board 6, Public School 58, The School for International Studies, Dawood Mosque, St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Kane Street Synagogue, Christ Church Episcopal, Mt. Sinai Synagogue, The Oratory Church of St. Boniface, Packer Collegiate Institute, St. Ann & the Holy Trinity, Our Lady of Lebanon Cathedral, Grace Church, Plymouth Church of the Pilgrims, Yemeni American Association, New American Chamber of Commerce

The Dialogue Project, Inc.

123 Seventh Avenue, Box 234

Brooklyn, NY 11215

Tel. 718-768-2175

Fax. 718-768-2094

www.thedialogueproject.org

Funding provided by The New York Community Trust, Independence Community Foundation and private donors